DURYEA.

Friday night the hotel of Peter Krupinski was burglarized by seven masked men. It is thought the men or his blood. Krupinski jumped from • behind and tried to escape, when he was captured by one of the members of the gang and brutally beaten. Then the ruffians started to search the reglster for some money, but fortunately did not find any, as Krupinski is not the habit of keeping his change there. They then set upon Shoyztizs and took from him $45 in cash, his watch and other valuables, Shoyztizs was returning home with his pay. They beat him until he was unconscious. Meanwhile Krupinski escaped and had aroused the neighbors and the inmates of the house, but when they came to the rescue they found Shoyztizs unconscious and the bar relieved of its best stock.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Beview.

New York, Dec. 8.—Confusion and hesitation were reflected in the movement of stock prices all day and the course of the market did not persist in one direction for any lengthened period. The movement during the morning was irregular but learned to the side o fdepression, which gave way about midday fo a vigorous upward movement, when the abstracts of the president's message made their appearance. A slump in Amalgamated Copper and a tise in call money rates unsettled the market again late in the day, as was the case yesterday. The sympathetic resaction did not carry the level of prices back below last night, but lett small not gains as a rule. The early heaviness of the market was due to some continued uncasiness over the anti-trust views contained in the president's message. The general tenor of the message has been pretty well understood for several days past, and what selling was induced by its contents had been mostly exhausted before the publication. The tone of the deprecation of the habit to haired and fear in the public arguments against the so-called trusts seemed to gratify speculative sentiment, and to hausted before the publication. The tone of the deprecation of the habit to hatred and fear in the public arguments against the so-called trusts seemed to gratify speculative sentiment, and to ameliorate the slock market effect of the rains for regulation of the trusts. In consequence the demand to cover shorts which followed the publication of the message carried the whole market upward with considerable momentum, the prices of the most prominent stocks rising from one to two points over last night. The movement of Amalgamated Copper continued an insertiable mystery. The stock recovered vigorously in the morning, although the onlistent of a customary extra dividend by one of its subsidiary companies was not generally known when the market closed yesterday. The break in the late dealings to a new low record of 71 was without explanation by the early unfavorable developments, which seemed to be ignored. The stock rallied slightly and their became heavy again, but the general market closed firm. Total sales today, 713,100 shores.
